Public transport

Public transportation in Copenhagen is very reliable, punctual, and takes you everywhere. The same ticket can be used in the metro, bus, train and waterbus.

Where to buy tickets
You can buy your ticket in ticket machines at the stations, which accept Danish cash and the most common credit cards
• On-board buses, from the driver
• Pay with your smartphone or online: download the app ‘Mobilbilletter Hovedstaden’ in App Store and Google Play.

Types of tickets
• 24-hour ticket costs DKK 130/EUR 18
• 72-hour City Pass costs DKK 200/EUR 27
• Single-trip ticket (between DKK 24/EUR 3.5 for 2 zones and DKK 108/EUR 14.5 for all zones. Two zones will cover most travel in Copenhagen’s city centre, whereas an all-zone ticket will get you to Elsinore, Roskilde or Frederikssund in the capital region).
